Advanced Practice Professional Provider Executive Leadership Institute (PELI) COHORT II

Course Begins Fall 2019 in Portland, ME
Enrollment Limited to 20 APPs

Here's what one Physician Assistant from our first cohort shared:

The PELI APP leadership course has been one of the most important things I have undertaken since assuming a leadership role. The confidence I have gained from my interactions with & coaching from Hanley faculty as well as guest lecturers have helped me further develop my professional role & contribute to the growth of the organization. I have been able to launch two new programs within Inland, one of which is now going forward to a regional level. In addition to my growing confidence, I have gained a new understanding of how others perceive issues & how personalities shape all our interactions, which has been tremendously helpful both professionally & personally. Lastly, it was gratifying to be in a room of APPs, finding we all faced many of the same problems, & being able to give & receive feedback from others in similar circumstances.

We are delighted to announce that enrollment is now underway for the Daniel Hanley Center for Health Leadership's SECOND COHORT of our Provider Executive Leadership Institute (PELI) specifically for Advanced Practice Professionals.

The role of Advanced Practice Professionals in the delivery of healthcare services has never been more important. APPs are a vital and precious resource in every corner of our state and their integral inclusion in care teams requires them to pull upon leadership and management skills often not covered in their training.

The Hanley Center has heard loud and clear the desire and need for a leadership development course specifically for APPs across Maine. We have tailored our well-respected physician PELI Foundational Course to suit the leadership development challenges that Advanced Practice Professionals face. Participants will gain knowledge, skills, and tools in the following core competency areas, empowering them to lead and transform our healthcare delivery system.

- Systems awareness
- Strategic focus
- Management/business skills
- Self-awareness
- Interpersonal skills
- Healthcare trends
- Teamwork and collaboration

The Course consists of six two-evening sessions (3 hours each) and four 90-minute intersessions taking place over one year. The two-evening sessions take place on consecutive evenings once every other month, with the intersessions scheduled on the off-months. Executive Coaching with the faculty who is a certified executive coach is available as part of the course.
